PREFACE

It is my intention that this small volume will be but a prelude to a far more complete and comprehensive "Genealogy of the Ramsey Family". The earlier generations contained herein are proved by document; while the later lines were gleaned from the individuals themselves.

Special thanks is due the following persons without whose help and interest this history would not have been possible: Mrs. Lucy Ramsey, Mrs. Vivian Ramsey Metzler, Mrs. Lillian D. Grace, Mr. John F. Ramsey, Mrs. Carl McCurdy, and the many scores of other relatives and friends with whom I have corresponded.

Any additions or corrections are welcome; please let me know what you think about the book.

GENEALOGY OF THE RAMSEY FAMILY

IN THE SOUTHERN UNITED STATES

1740-1962

Samuel Ramsey was born about 1740, as he acquired land in South Carolina in 1762. Both his parentage and birth place are unknown. Family legend states that the Ramseys of whom we are descended came to this country after the Scots were defeated at the Battle of Culloden in 1745; our first ancestor in this country being a physician. The first definite record of Samuel appears in 1762 when he was granted 100 acres of land in Berkley, County, South Carolina. He was also granted several other tracts of land in South Carolina: 150 acres, February 4, 1765 on 96 Creek in Berkley County; 100 acres, August 7, 1768 in Berkley County; 100 acres October 18, 1770 in Edgefield County on Sleepy ("Rocky") Creek; 486 acres in 96 District on February 19, 1786; and finally, 243 acres in 96 District on May 4, 1786. According to Mrs. Susan S. Padgett of Columbia, South Carolina (with some 30 years experience in genealogical research) Samuel Ramsey's land was located some 8 or 9 miles north of the town of Edgefield, South Carolina, between highways 25 and 430 and just south of highway 378.

Mr. Ramsey's Revolutionary service is proved in Stubs Entry Book "V", number 652; "Issued to Mr. Samuel Ramsey 13th September 1785, for six Pounds, 8s7/d st. g. for Militia Duty as Private, per account passed by the commissioners Principle £ 6..8:7. Annual interest £ 0..9..k."

Samuel Ramsey married Ealanor _____. It is hoped that further reserach will reveal mare information concerning this couple. Samuel Ramsay's name appears on the 1790 United States Census of Edgefield County:

Mr. Ramsey died in Edgefield County about 1794, and his wife about 1800. From the will of their son, Matthew Ramsey, made in 1797, we know that they had the following children:

- a. Matthew Ramsey; married Sarah _____.
- b. William Ramsey
- c. James Ramsey, born about 1783; married Mary Quattlebaum.
- d. John Ramsey
- e. Christian (perhaps Christina) Ramsey

They were probably born in the order in which they are listed above; this is the order in which they are listed in the will.

James Ramsey (Ramsay), son of Samuel and Ealanor Ramsey, was born about 1783 in Edgefield County, South Carolina. If the order in which the children of Samuel and Ealanor Ramsey are listed correctly in the will of Matthew, James was the third child born to them. He married Mary Quattlebaum of Edgefield about 1803. She was born about 1786 and was the child of Johannes and Anna Barbara Quattlebaum. (See table of contents for the Quattlebaum Genealogy.) James, his wife, and family moved from Edgefield to Lowndes County, Alabama about 1815; however, he did not enter his first land there until August 26, 1828. His land in Edgefield was sold to John Dorn February 3, 1805. The Alabama records show that shortly after the formation of Lowndes County in 1829 (up to that time it had been part of Montgomery County ), the Lowndes County Court met on November 15, 1830 at Hayneville. His honor Peter Williamson presided. The sheriff returned the Venire Facias and the following persons, having been sommoned to serve as jurors, appeared in Court and answered to their names, to wit: John Kimball Gabriel P. Moore, James Ramsey, Duncan Seller, Joel Tatum, John Bass, John F. Auld, Spencer Eldridge, and William Ramsey. James sold his land in Lowndes County January 18, 1836 to Joseph McConnoughe and entered his first land in Union Parish, Louisiana in April, 1836. The author had been told by oldre members of the family in Union Parish that the journey from Alabama to Louisiana was made by covered wagon. The distance traveled each day was so small that a slave was sent, each afternoon, back to the previous night's camp to bring a burning ember for the new campfire. Mr. Ramsey died on his farm, which was located near what is now Zion Hill Church in the southern part of Union Parish about May 10, 1851. His wife Mary also died in Union Parish about 1854. Mr. Ramsey left no will; however, the deeds whereby his children divided his land among themselves and their mother are on record in the Union Parish Courthouse.

He married Mary Ann Tankersley, daughter of John Roy and Mary Ann (Tankersley) Tankersley, in Montgomery County, on March 6, 1828. (See the table of contents for the Tankersley Genealogy) Mrs. Ramsey was born in Tennessee, probably Williamson County, on March 15, 1813 and died in Claiborne Parish, Louisiana June 12, 1863. Mr. Ramsey died in Union Parish some time in May, 1888 while on a visit there. A succession of Wilks Ramsey, filed under Jacket Number 1068 in the Claiborne Parish Courthouse, reflects that he died interstate, leaving some property and the following major heirs: William Ramsey, J. Deen was born in Lowndes County, Alabama July 24, 1842, and was the daughter of Simeon Deen, who was born in South Carolina in 1802. STATE OF TEXAS

Thereas, heretofore on the 14th day of December, A.D. 1914, by deed duly recorded in the Deed Records of Colorado County, Texas, in Book 87 at page 639, I conveyed certain lands therein mentioned to my daughter, Ida Mae Wallace, the wife of Keetie Wallace, who resides at Glidden, Colorado County, Texas, which deed is hers referred to for description of said land, the consideration mentioned in said deed being three thousand dollars cash, but which was not in fact paid in cash, but said deed was made to her because for years back I gave her nothing while I gave to my children, and because now in my latter days I have made my home with her, and she and her husband have both been kind to me, ministering to my wants in time of sickness and need, and also because of the love and affection I bear to my said daughter, and which consideration should have been therein stated, but being advised that it was necessary to state a money consideration to make the deed binding, said consideration was stated as hereinbefore mentioned; and,

COUNTY OF COLORADO

Whereas, in order to confirm said deed and to prevent trouble between my children, and in order that they may understand the true consideration moving me to make said deed; therefore,

Know All Men By These Presents, the I, James Ramsey, of Colorado County, Texas, being of sound mind and disposing memory, and desiring to make such disposition of what is left me as I see fit before my death, do hereby publish this, my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills heretofore by me made:

First: I desire to be buried in a decent manner, and charge my said daughter, Ida Mae, that she see that I am so buried, and that the expenses thereof be paid out of the property hereinafter bequeathed to her, as well as to all the expenses of my last sickness.

Second: In confirmation of my said deed to her, I hereby bequeath to my said daughter, Ida Mae Wallace, the real estate described in the heretofore mentioned deed, as well as all other property of whatsoever kind, whether personal, real or mixed, that I may die seized of, and I also appoint her, the said Ida Mae Wallace, executrix of this will, and desire that no bond or other security be required of her as such executrix, and that no other action be taken in the courts of Texas than the probate and recording of this will and the return of an inventory and list of claims.

Third: I do not bequeath anything to my daughter, Mattie Williams, the wife of H. S. Williams, because she has a husband and five grown sons who will take care of her. I do not bequeath anything to the children of my deceased son, James T. Ramsey, because he has heretofore been given his part of my estate, and besides, his boys are all grown and his only daughter is married, and, therefore, are amply able to take care of themselves. I do not bequeath anything to my son, Sid C. Ramsey, because he has heretofore received his part of my estate. I do not bequeath anything to the children of my deceased daughter, Mrs. Stella Davis, because her children's father is living, and, besides, the children are doing well; Joe Davis being a lieutenant in the army, and Mrs. William Hoffman and husband, William Hoffman, are amply able to take care of themselves, and her daughter, Stella Foley, has a living husband who makes a good living, and Hazel has her father to take care of her. I do not bequeath anything to my daughter, Georgia Brace, of Arkansas, as she has heretofore received her part of my estate. I do not bequeath anything to my son, Lee Ramsey, because he has heretofore received his part of my estate. I do not bequeath anything to my son Chas. Ramsey, because he has heretofore received his part of my estate. I do not bequeath anything to my daughter, Mayne Davis, who married Will Davis, and now living at Boerne, Texas, as she has heretofore received her part of my estate. I make this explanation because I remember and love all of my said children and grand--children, yet, as I am now making my home with my said daughter, Ida Mae Wallace, and who, with her husband, has agreed to support and take care of me for the balance of my life, as well as for the other reasons heretofore set out, I find it my duty to leave the small estate which I now can to her.

In testimony whereof I set my hand this 6th day of January, 1915.

James Ramsey

Signed, declared and published by James Ramsey, as His last will and testament, in presence of us, the attesting witnesses, who have hereto subscribed our names in the presence of said James Ramsey, at his special instance and request, this 6th day of January, 1915.
